AZALEA MOLLIS (Chinese Azalea) Reb/Ror

As illustrated below

Noted for their attractive large individual flowers and clusters in May. They are very hardy in your latitude and thrive under ordinary garden treatment. Like all Azaleas, they prefer an acid soil and plenty of granulated peat mixed with the soil at planting time. They thrive in partial shade and intermingled with Rhododendrons or narrow-leaved Hollies. Before dropping their leaves in the late autumn, they make a fine display of typical fall color. Mixed colors only.

All Azaleas shipped by railway express, transportation charges collect.

1 to 1½ ft., $3.50 each; 3 or more at the rate of $3.25 each

AZALEA ALTACLARENSIS

AZALEA ALTACLARENSIS
 (Altaclaire Azalea)

This is considered the finest orange-yellow Deciduous Azalea in existence. The handsome trusses of molten gold buds and half-open flowers open to a gorgeous pure yellow. This is the true variety cherished by all collectors of fine Azaleas.

1 to 1½ ft., $3.50 each; 3 or more at the rate of $3.25 each

BUYER'S GUIDE TO ORDERING BY MAIL

1. Please remit check, money order or bank draft with your order. Currency is sent at your own risk.
2. All stock is sent at best planting time for your locality as order acknowledgment will show. Plants are so packed that a few days' delay will do no harm, provided they are left in the packing and put in a cool, shaded place, out of sun and wind.

3. TERMS OF DELIVERY:

PERENNIALS. To insure safe arrival and satisfaction.

Perennials are not shipped together with roses, bulbs, or other nursery stock as they do not lend themselves to combination shipping and planting times are often different.

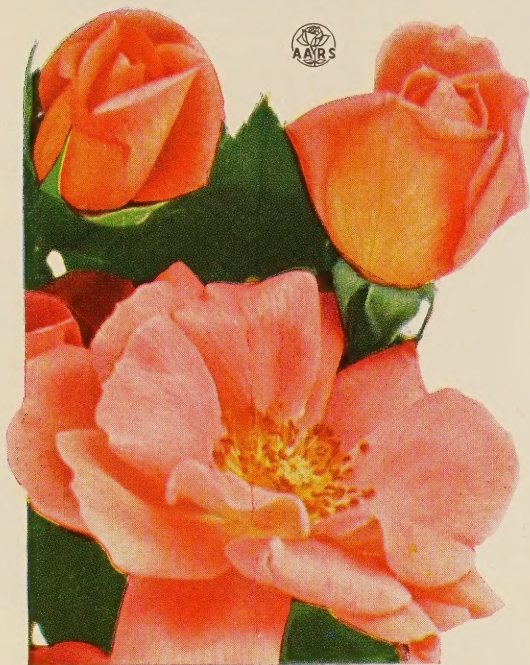

TRANSPORTATION. Transportation charges are not included in the prices of plants, roses or bulbs. Please add fifty cents (50c) to your order to help defray the cost of handling. All rhododendrons, azaleas, in this catalog are shipped by Railway Express, transportation charges collect. (Not prepaid.)

CHARGE ACCOUNTS. It is not necessary to add fifty cents (50c) when ordering on charge accounts, as any extra charge incurred such as packing and postage will be added to your invoice. Express shipments will be collectable at destination, unless other arrangements prior to shipping have been made.

RESPONSIBILITY. While we exercise the greatest care in filling orders we cannot give any warranty, expressed or implied. We will replace such material as proved not true to name, but it is agreed at no time will we be responsible for more than the original purchase price. Retention of plants for ten days without complaint in writing constitutes an acceptance and will not be subject to replacement (unless in exceptional cases). Only complaints regarding untruthfulness to name will be honored after this period.

Floribunda Roses

"Roses in abundance" is just what Floribunda means. Flowers are borne in graceful bouquet-like clusters and fill the garden continually with bright blooms from late spring until late fall. Plant them informally for dashes of color. They are very much at home in front of taller, hardy shrub borders. Then, too, they can be used for permanent border or hedge planting, where the color is magnificent.

FRAGRANT Old-Fashioned HISTORICAL ROSES

History, sentiment and poets are all entwined with these old Roses. Nearly every grown man and woman cherishes some memory of their fragrant, unsophisticated charm. Their hardiness is unquestioned and, when established, they may be considered the crowning glory of the late May and early June Rose season. They may be used as specimen plants or in with other deciduous flowering shrubs. Spaced about 3 feet apart each way, they are very easy to grow and need little coddling.

Everblooming ROSES

Nine of the very best varieties, some of them introduced quite a few years ago but all may well be considered the backbone of the Rose garden. We still grow these fine old varieties in great quantities and are thus enabled to offer them at very reasonable prices. They will begin blooming early next summer and continue until late frost. Planted in just average garden soil that will grow a good crop of vegetables and given normal care, they should live and bloom in your garden for years to come. These nine are all fragrant.

All Roses offered in this booklet are 2-year, strictly No. 1 dormant plants. Do not be confused by the term "2-year, field-grown," because it means very little unless there are plenty of good thick canes and strong fibrous roots to support the plants. These you will find on B. & A. Roses. They are ready for harvest and planting in November. Just as the farmer harvests wheat, corn, etc., when the crops are ripe and mature, so it is that dormant Roses are harvested as they ripen, harden and mature in late fall.

The Peony • • KING OF PERENNIALS

Acclaimed for its regal beauty and gorgeous color

It is a generally accepted fact that Peonies give the very best results when planted in the fall. The Peony has often been called the King of the Perennials because it is so dependably hardy and long-lived. So plan to plant more Peonies this fall.

Plant in good garden soil, covering not over 2 inches deep, and top dress annually with bonemeal.

SINGLE PEONIES

Single Peonies are of easy culture and are most pleasing. Flowering at the same time as the double varieties they add contrast and grace to any garden.

- ★ HAKODATE. Pure white. $4.00 each.
- ★ MIKADO. (Illustrated.) $2.00 each.
- ★ MR. G. F. HEMERICK. Bright pink. $2.00 each.
- ★ RIGOLOTO. Deep red. $3.50 each.

TREE PEONIES

Tree Peonies may be confusing to the inexperienced buyer so we compare them to small-sized flowering shrubs. Flowering earlier than most others we highly recommend them.

- ★ BANKSI. Shining pink. $7.50 each.
- ★ LA LORRAINE. Yellow. $6.00 each.
- ★ MOUTAN. Single. Wine color. $7.50 each.

AZALEA, Benigiri

Hardy Evergreen AZALEAS

When these Azaleas are planted in early and mid-fall in your area, they do very well indeed and become well established for next year's blooms. They are at home among other evergreens such as Rhododendrons, Kalmia, Ilex and Andromeda. The many varieties we offer will add life and color to what may otherwise be a drab, solid green foundation planting.

Like the whole Azalea family, they prefer an acid soil with plenty of leaf mold or granulated peat incorporated in the soil at planting time.

(T) Tall grower; (C) Compact grower.

AMBERGLOW. (C) As the name implies, a very lovely double, deep rose-colored flower overlaid with salmon. Good foliage. B, C.

AMOENA. (C) Bright rosy purple flowers in May, covering the entire bush. Grows as broad as high. B, C.

BENIGIRI. (T) Flowers deep bright red, almost scarlet. Clean upright habit; rapid grower. B, C, D.

CHIPPEWA. (C) A very fine June-flowering variety. Single flowers of deep rosy carmine with light maroon. Good glossy foliage. Free flowering. B, C, D.

AZALEA Rosaeflora

AZALEA, Hinodegiri

CRIMSON KING. (C) Large trusses of light crimson flowers with a salmon cast. Very showy and attractive. B, C.

FLAME. (T) Medium-sized, brilliant madder-red flowers with coppery suffusion in May. Good foliage. B, C, D.

GLORY. (C) A June-flowering Azalea having beautiful foliage and lovely large, hose-in-hose, deep pink flowers. B, C.

HINODEGIRI. (C) Unquestionably the most popular of the scarlet types. Its brilliancy and beauty when in flower is never forgotten. Considered reasonably hardy. Rounded foliage throughout the year. Its bright scarlet flower completely hide the foliage. B, C, D.

MRS. L. C. FISCHER. (C) Our own introduction. Plant of medium growth. Semi-double flowers of salmon-pink with pleasing carmine markings. Good foliage. B, C, D.

SNOW. (C) Large, pure white flowers borne profusely in clusters. Beautiful glossy green foliage. B, C.

AZALEA, Flame

AZALEA ROSAEFLORA

This dwarf-growing, beautiful Azalea is truly a collector's item. It is comparatively rare but not new. Very slow growing and compact in habit. Its double, light salmon-orange flowers are nestled in the foliage, which increases its compactness. As an unusual plant for rock gardens, pools, etc., we highly endorse this scarce variety. 6 to 8 in., $3.00 each.

All Azaleas must be shipped by railway express, transportation charges collect.

RHODODENDRON HYBRIDS

Contrary to general belief, these hybrids do not need shade. They are easy to grow but do require an acid soil, free from all traces of lime. The most effective plantings are those in masses combining all colors for contrast and interest.

Rhododendron Hybrids are unquestionably among the most magnificent of flowering shrubs. Their broad, leathery foliage has a majestic dignity, which proves most effective during the cold drab months of winter.

CATAWBIENSE ALBUM. White. Medium.

DR. DRESSELHUY. Red. Medium robust.

EVERSTIANUM. Rosy lilac. Medium.
